

REQUEST FOR QUOTATION FOR SUPPLY AND DELIVERY OF RE-USABLE SANITARY PADS

UNFPA, the United Nations reproductive health and rights agency, aims to achieve universal access to sexual and reproductive health and rights for all.

UNFPA with support from the The Embassy of the Kingdom of The Netherlands in Kampala is implementing the “Advancing Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights in West Nile and Acholi Sub Regions in Uganda”. The overall goal of the programme is to contribute to the achievement of Universal access to SRHR of women, girls, boys and men including disadvantaged and vulnerable populations in Uganda with a specific focus maternal health, Family Planning, teenage pregnancy/early marriages and gender based violence.

One of the key objectives of the programme is to increasing access to and utilization of quality SRHR services (FP, Maternal health, Post abortion Care, HIV Testing and Post GBV). In order to achieve this, UNFPA seeks to engage the services of a firm to provide re-usable sanitary pads for women and girls in the West Nile and Acholi sub-regions to enhance their access to better hygiene and also enable the girls to remain in school and improve sexual and reproductive health and rights/gender based outcomes in the two regions.
